Christ is Risen…
now let’s live the Resurrection!

REV. FR. JOHN VLAHOS, Cathedral Dean

Nine weeks. Sixty-three days. That is how long our spiritual odyssey across the vast ocean of Great and Holy Lent took. It was a time of repentance, fasting and self-evaluation. It was a real awakening for us as we came face to face with our darkness, our hate, our despair, our lies, our evil and our death. The culmination of this preparatory period was at midnight on Great and Holy Saturday, when we received the Light of Christ from His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America, and through the chanting of Christos Anesti, we entered into a new dawn. Christ’s undeniable triumph is the victory of light over darkness, love over hate, hope over despair, truth over lies, virtue over evil, and life over death.

As vitally important as those sixty-three days of preparation were, we now place equal emphasis on the fifty days after Pascha until Pentecost. We began with the first seven days after Pascha by referring to them as “Bright Week/The Week of Renewal” to show that the Resurrection makes all things new. We are to think new, act new and be new.

As we live our lives among people who are not yet believers, we have to have a Christian EXPERIENCE that has CHANGED our life— that we can say, “YES, this has happened to me.” Through Great and Holy Lent, we have to have experienced a change from the INSIDE OUT—we are a new creation because of the work that Christ is doing in our lives. “If any person be in Christ, he is a new creation” (2 Cor. 5:17). St. Paul says to us, “We were buried with Christ…unto death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead, we also may walk in newness of life” (Romans 6:4). We can tell people, “I KNOW WHO JESUS IS (He is God) and I have experienced the transformation that the Lord brings.”

Ask yourself what things have you EXPERIENCED in your life that has changed you from the inside out? Things that you knew had to be a work of the Lord and not of yourselves?

The late Fr. Alexander Schmemann, an esteemed priest, teacher and writer, combines these pre- and post-periods of Pascha and shows how the Resurrection of Christ is the hinge between the two. He writes, “Jesus’ Resurrection is ours. It is the mysterious light shining in the midst of this mortal world. Christ has entered the dark kingdom of death; He has filled all things with Himself. And thus even when we descend into that darkness, we find Christ there, the risen Lord…and while we still weep, deep down in our hearts the mysterious joy begins to dawn. A voice says to us, Why do you cry? A certitude comes that death has been overcome and its dominion shaken.”

Christ rises from the dead and by His rising He delivers us from darkness, anxiety and terror. The victory of Christ is confirmed, love is openly shown to be stronger than hatred, and life is stronger than death. God himself has died and risen from the dead, and so there is no more death. Even death is filled with God. Because Christ is Risen, we need no longer be afraid of any dark or evil force in the universe. As we proclaim each year at the Paschal midnight service in words attributed to St. John Chrysostom: “Let none fear death, for the death of the Savior has set us free. Christ is Risen and the demons have fallen. Christ is Risen and the angels rejoice.”
The Holy and Great Council
PENTECOST 2016
"He called all to unity"

History of the Holy and Great Council
By Rev. Dr. John Chryssavgis, Archdeacon of the Ecumenical Patriarchate

The Orthodox Church is the church of the apostles, the church of the martyrs, the church of the fathers, the church of the councils. Through the centuries, the Orthodox Church convened local and regional, great and greater, as well as universal or ecumenical councils. Just as every celebration of the holy Eucharist is a confirmation of the communion between each person with his or her community, and that local community with the universal Church, so too, every council is a reaffirmation of the unity between each local and self-governing Orthodox church with the universal Church. In fact, St. John Chrysostom – the renowned fourth-century archbishop of Constantinople – boldly states that “council” is another name for “church.”

In this spirit and from its responsibility and privilege to ensure inter-Orthodox unity and facilitate inter-Orthodox cooperation, the Ecumenical Patriarchate has tirelessly labored to convene a Pan-Orthodox Council since the early 1900s. Preparations for this council began in earnest in 1961 and continued through the 1960s, while pre-conciliar conferences, tasked with forming the council’s agenda and its rules of operation, met in 1976 through 1986. After a long hiatus created by immense political and ideological changes, as well as the unprecedented social and religious challenges resulting from the collapse of the Iron Curtain, His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew revived the process in 2008.

So, after almost a century, the agenda was finalized, the documents were edited, and the process was completed in January 2016.

Never before in the history of the Orthodox Church have so many Orthodox churches – fourteen from around the world – assembled in one and the same place. Yet, despite hesitation and apprehension, despite reservation and even resistance, the Holy and Great Council is being convened at the Orthodox Academy of Crete—steps from a ninth-century Monastery of the Virgin Mary—from June 16 to June 27, 2016.

He called all to unity. May we respond with charity and generosity.

We fervently ask the plenitude of the Church – clergy and laity, men and women, old and young – to pray for this unique and historical event. We especially ask that you implore God to strengthen and inspire the leaders of the Church to manifest their unity in a world afflicted by conflict and division.

May God bless the Holy and Great Council. And May His abundant grace be with all of you.

The Holy and Great Council of the Orthodox Church, Crete

Towards the Holy and Great Council:
A Comprehensive Timeline

For the first time in 1200 years, the fourteen autocephalous Orthodox Churches will meet, with a common desire to reinforce their relations and address contemporary spiritual and social challenges in the world.

Official channels of communications

The Holy and Great Council will be held June 16-27 in Crete. For the first time in 1200 years, the primates of all 14 Orthodox autocephalous (or self-governed) Churches, along with more than 300 bishops and others, will meet to pray and discuss issues of common concern. Keep up-to-date by visiting www.orthodoxcouncil.org for daily briefings, and by using the communication channels of the Ecumenical Patriarchate.

Notes from the Choir Loft...

Musical Tribute to the Legendary Dr. Dino Anagnost
On Friday, April 22nd, the Cathedral Choir collaborated with the Archdiocesan Byzantine Choir to present a concert of Lenten Music, in memory of the beloved Maestro Dr. Dino Anagnost, who led the Cathedral Choir for almost 40 years. Dignitaries that were present included Fr. Robert Stephanopoulos, who remarked of Maestro Anagnost’s high standards for musical success, and His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America, who credited Dino with bringing the Cathedral Choir to the prestigious level that it continues to represent today. Under the direction of Evey Simon, the choir presented arrangements by Maestro Anagnost, including the “Kyrie Eleison”, beautifully sung by Soprano soloist Sun Young Chang. Additional highlights from the concert including the renowned Hymn of Kassiani, which featured Mezzo-Soprano soloist Karolina Pilou, who will be performing at the Metropolitan Opera during the 2016-2017 season. George Hailalis, who narrated the concert and was a member of the choir for almost 50 years, was presented with an award following the concert for his many years of dedication to church music, presented by Anna Dounealis, President, D.A.D. Federation of Greek Orthodox Musicians.

Cathedral Choir featured during Holy Week Services
On Holy Tuesday, The Cathedral Choir reprised the beautiful Hymn Of Kassiani, arranged by Nikolaos Mantzaros/Nicholas Roubanis. At the service of the Lamentations on Holy Friday, the choir presented a powerful setting of the lamentations adapted from the music of Anna Gallos. The Paschal Divine Liturgy featured Gretchaninoff’s ethereal cherubic hymn, a setting for 8 different voice parts chanted by the 24 voiced choir.
The Greek Orthodox Archdiocesan Cathedral of the Holy Trinity is known internationally for its magnificent choir and music program. The choir has sung religious services with Patriarchs, Archbishops and ecumenical leaders, as well as United States presidents, and dignitaries from around the world. It performs all special services with His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America, and participates in the weekly Divine Liturgy with the Dean of the Cathedral, Rev. Fr. John Vlahos.

The Holy Trinity Music Fund/Endowment has been created to enable our national Cathedral to maintain a music program equal to the splendor and grandeur of the Cathedral itself, and to present the highest possible musical ministry for the enhancement of worship to the glory of God. For more information or to make a donation to the Holy Trinity Cathedral Music Fund, please contact Evey Simon, Director Of Music at choir@thecathedralnyc.org.

The children of Sunday School had a wonderful and busy Lenten period. All were excited to talk and share their Lenten experiences. With their dedicated teachers they helped on Palm Sunday to carry the palms in a procession around the church. Each and every child with their happy faces were extremely proud to stand on the solea with their palms and be blessed by Father John. Holy week was extremely busy as the children prepared to attend the Apokathelosis service. All the children were handed baskets to sprinkle the flowers on the Epitaphio. They all received delicious Easter cookies for their help. The evening of Holy Friday we had 18 beautiful Myrrh girls participate in their gorgeous white outfits sprinkle flowers on the Epitaphio. Archbishop Demetrios, was very proud and thanked the girls that followed him in the procession around the church.

The children have had a busy Sunday School year to date. We have a few more classes until we break for the summer. We continue to encourage all parents to bring their children to Sunday School. Classes for children start at 40 days old thru 17 years old. We warmly welcome students and parents at any time. Please visit us in the undercroft immediately following communion.

If you have any questions, please contact Effie Doscas Butler at (917) 836-0149 or edoscas@ziffster.com.

On April 19, 2016 the Archdiocesan Cathedral Philoptochos Society members were at work, as per their mission, preparing packages for the “Feed the Hungry” program initiated by the National Philoptochos. The Members of our Cathedral Philoptochos bought, packaged, delivered, and distributed the meals and clothing to the homeless at the Penn Station area of New York City.

On Mother’s Day the Cathedral Philoptochos celebrated the event by distributing roses to all the ladies at the end of the Divine Liturgy.

Fr. John invited the oldest and youngest mother of the congregation to the solea to acknowledge their contribution to society and to present them with a bouquet of roses donated by the Cathedral Philoptochos. In addition, our President addressed the congregation informing them of our Philoptochos activities.

The Archdiocesan Cathedral Philoptochos Society continues to sponsor the coffee hour every Sunday after the Divine Liturgy.

We also continue the “Feed the Homeless Program” which we sponsor together with Jan Hus Church and provide a meal every Tuesday for approximately 100 homeless and low-income individuals.

Through the diligent work of our Welfare Committee we continue to support our welfare cases helping individuals and families in crisis.

Services for Great and Holy Friday

Archbishop Demetrios presided in the Holy Friday evening services with his two deacons along with our Cathedral’s Dean Rev. Fr. John Vlahos and our special guest Hieromonk Maximos Constas who was invited to join us from Boston.

The Evening of Holy Friday we had 18 beautiful Myrrh girls participate in their gorgeous white outfits sprinkle flowers on the Epitaphio. Archbishop Demetrios was very proud and thanked the girls that followed him in the procession around the Church.

Great Friday and Saturday direct our attention to the trial, crucifixion, death and burial of Christ. We are placed within the awesome mystery of the extreme humility of our suffering God.
Archbishop Demetrios shares the Paschal Light with the faithful as he walks to the stage outside the Church from which he read the Gospel for the Feast and pronounced the glorious news of the Risen Christ before thousands of parishioners.

For as by a man came death, by a man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

Dedication of the Chiotes Family Cathedral Hall

On Sunday, May 15th, 2016, His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios, Geron of America, together with His Eminence Metropolitan Philotheos of Meloa and His Grace Bishop An- donios of Phasiane, offered a special prayer and blessing at the Dedication of the Chiotes Family Cathedral Hall. Hundreds of our parishioners gathered together to celebrate the magnanimous gift of $1.3 million by Ms. Helen Chiotes, which is earmarked for the remodeling of the Hall. We look forward to this new state-of-the-art facility (completed in 2017), which will serve to beautify our spiritual home and serve the needs of our faithful community for decades to come.
Cathedral Connect –
Community starts here

Cathedral Connect is a ministry for young adults that was formed in the fall of 2014 at the Holy Trinity Cathedral in NYC. The group’s mission is to promote community development through various community outreach, philanthropic, spiritual, cultural, and social events. Since the group’s launch, “Connectors” have grown from a room of ten to a lively organization.

Cathedral Connect invites those that are interested to join our monthly meetings, which take place every first Monday evening of the month at 7:30 pm in the Cathedral Boardroom.

• On March 19th, Connectors prepared brunch for the children of the Ronald-McDonald House and their families! Seeing the great interest and the smiles we brought to children’s faces, we plan to organize such event quarterly.

• On March 24th, we took over a theater at the AMC-Loews Kips Bay in Manhattan for the premiere of My Big Fat Greek Wedding 2...the night before it came out! All proceeds outside the movie cost itself ($1,600) will benefit the St. Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center.

• The weekend of April 9th–10th, started off with Philo4Thought’s wonderful Hellenic Young Professionals conference, where Cathedral Connect was honored with a certificate of outstanding achievement as a breakthrough young professionals group and concluded with the Greek Independence Day parade.

• On May 3rd, Cathedral Connect co-hosted ‘Κρυφό Σχολείο (Secret School) on the Rocks’ events with the Hellenic American Leadership Council (HALC), where members (beginners through advanced) met to learn how to speak Greek. In addition to promoting Greek language learning, this “Κρυφό Σχολείο” event also acted as a fundraiser for the upcoming Lung Force Walk, which Cathedral Connect members will be participating in on Saturday, May 14th.
To find out more information and to stay up-to-date with various Cathedral Connect activities, follow us on Facebook (CathedralConnect) and Instagram (@cathedralconnect), and email connect@thecathedralnyc.org to join our mailing list and receive updates on our meetings and events.

UNIQUITY HELPS CWS HELP FLOOD VICTIMS

Just in time for Holy Week, Uniquity culminated months of fundraising by assembling 32 Emergency Clean-Up Buckets for Church World Service.

Church World Service, the relief arm of the National Council of Churches (of which the Archdiocese is a constituent denomination), will eventually distribute the buckets, which contain a not-inexpensive inventory of clean-up supplies, ranging from sponges, scrub brushes and gloves to an assortment of detergents to clothesline and pins, to the victims of storms and floods within the United States.

Unlike other CWS emergency kits, clean-up buckets contain cleaning chemicals which are difficult to export, so they are only used domestically. However, they are still the most urgently requested and least frequently donated of the kits distributed by CWS – it handed out over 2,000 of them here in New York after Hurricane Sandy – which is why Uniquity chose them for its Lenten Service Project.

Fundraising for the project started in December, when Uniquity raffled off a gift certificate graciously donated by William Poll Gourmet Foods. And at the beginning of Lent, Uniquity sought donations from both its members and the Cathedral congregation. These funds, combined with discounts from several Home Depot stores (in particular, 59th Street, which assigned a commercial-accounts sales associate to assist us) and Gracious Home and a lot of careful shopping, yielded 32 buckets, at a cost per bucket rather below CWS’ estimate.

On Thursday evening, April 21, Uniquity members gathered on the balcony outside the Cathedral office to sort the supplies and fill the rows of buckets lining the hallway and window bays. Certain items purchased in bulk (like garbage bags and Handi-Wipes®) had to be counted out, and others proved adept at hiding among the other supplies, prompting a frantic search for “two blue scouring sponges”. (Note for future reference: Do not seal the buckets until you have triple-checked their contents!) On Saturday morning, April 23, two Uniquity members loaded the assembled buckets into their vehicles and drove them to CWS’s drop-off point at the United Methodist Church in Hempstead. (The Methodists are also members of the National Council of Churches.) At the time they were delivered, Uniquity’s 32 buckets were the only Emergency Clean-Up Buckets standing among the heaps of donated school and hygiene kits.
The St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival

The St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival is a ministry of the Archdiocese and provides Greek Orthodox teens the opportunity to write and talk about their faith. There are 3 Divisions – Elementary (grades 4-6 and at the Parish level only), Junior (grades 7-9) and Senior (grades 10-12).

We held our Parish Festival on April 3rd. There were 4 speakers in the Junior Division: Eleftheria Papadopoulos, Nikiforos Papadopoulos, Nick Poll and Stelliani Vlahos. They presented 3-4 minute speeches on topics about the value of silence in today’s plugged in world, about serving humanity and helping eliminate world hunger. There were also 2 children in the Elementary Division this year: Elizabeth Connant, who shared a poem about God’s creation and Chrysanthos Kefalidis who described his experience as an Altar Boy.

Nikiforos and Eleftheria Papadopoulos advanced to the Archdiocesan District I Festival, which was hosted here at the Cathedral on April 16th. The District I Festival welcomed 15 Speakers from 7 Parishes around the New York area. The 11 Junior Speakers and 4 Senior Speakers all spoke so well and prepared such thoughtful speeches, the judges had the difficult job of selecting 2 finalists in each division.

We are proud to see Nikiforos was chosen as one of the Junior Finalists where he advanced to the Metropolis Festival in Connecticut on May 14th – where he came in first place and will be continuing on to the National Festival in North Carolina in June!

Christina Connant, the Festival Chairperson, was impressed with the confidence the teens had to speak publicly and with the content of so many of the speeches. She thanks the Cathedral Fellowship Bookstore for generously donating the icons as gifts to the speakers and the judges. She also thanks Christina Villani for being the timekeeper. And a special thank you to Kalliope Constantaris for all her help, especially reaching out to all the Parishes around the District and encouraging so many youth to participate.

We look forward to next year’s Festival and hope to hear from even more of our children.

Our ministry provides Greek Orthodox teens the opportunity to write and talk about their faith.
