The story is told that one day a beggar by the roadside saw Alexander the Great coming by with his entourage. The beggar asked Alexander the Great if he could please spare some food or money. The emperor gave him several gold coins. A courtier was astonished at his generosity and commented, “Sir, copper coins would adequately meet a beggar’s needs. Why give him gold?” Alexander responded in royal fashion, “Copper coins would suit the beggar’s needs, but gold coins suit Alexander’s giving.” In other words, it would not only be simply inappropriate, it would be unthinkable for Alexander to give anything less than gold.

In the Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:29-37), we heard a lawyer ask from Christ, “What shall I do to inherit eternal life?” The Lord asked him what the bible says and the man accurately stated that he “should love God with all his mind, heart, soul and strength and to love his neighbor as himself.” Christ told him that he has answered well and if he does that he will live. When he asked Christ to clarify who exactly is considered his neighbor, Christ gave him the following parable A man was traveling and was robbed, beaten up and left for dead. A priest came by, saw him, and kept walking. A Levite passed by and did the same thing. Finally a Samaritan came by and Jesus details in a series of six verbs exactly what this man did; he went to him, he bandaged his wounds, he poured oil and wine on his wounds, he put him on his donkey, he brought him to an inn and he took care of him. In every one of his acts he demonstrated compassion as he responded in a practical, timely and unselfish way. He put him on his own donkey, which meant that the Samaritan walked. It is important to recognize that he took the time to take care of him. And we read “On the next day, when the Good Samaritan departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, “Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.” This man really went the extra mile and he also promised that he would return and fully reimburse the innkeeper for any additional expenses that he incurred in caring for this man. He left money to take care of this man’s needs and he put no limit on how much he would spend to see the wounded.

NEW YORK – A Ground Blessing ceremony for the St. Nicholas National Shrine at the World Trade Center is set for Saturday October 18, 2014 at 12:00 p.m. The ceremony will include a combined prayer service of blessing of the site (aghiasmos), a doxology (a service of thanksgiving) and a memorial service for the victims of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

The small Greek Orthodox Church of Saint Nicholas, which was established in 1916, was completely obliterated on Sept. 11, 2001 when the South Tower fell. The new Saint Nicholas National Shrine will be rebuilt only a short distance away at 130 Liberty Street, overlooking the 9/11 Memorial.

His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios of America will preside at the historic event with the participation of the hierarchs of the Holy Eparchial Synod of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. It will be attended by dignitaries and officials of the City of New York, officials of the States of New York and New Jersey, chaplains and interfaith representatives, family members of victims of 9/11, representatives of Archdiocese institutions and organizations and many faithful Orthodox Christians.

We can say with conviction that the man who was robbed and left for dead was us, humanity. The Good Samaritan is the Lord Jesus and the Inn is Christ’s Holy Church. The life of the Church continues and fulfills the ministry of Christ. The close association between Christ and the Church is reflected in the images from Scriptures which declare that Christ is the head and we the church as His Body. And that Christ is the groom and we the church are the bride. These images express the reality that the church does not exist independently from Christ. We as the church, as the body of Christ and as the bride of Christ work with HIM, we love him and serve him and offer him our lives. He does His part and we do ours!

And this is stewardship. It is the process of establishing the correct set of priorities in a life that is Christ-centered, spirit-filled and moving towards the kingdom of heaven. So in evaluating our current priorities and commitments, we must ask ourselves the following questions: Can I offer, as part of my ongoing commitment to serving the Lord Jesus Christ, a greater portion of what God has given me (time, talent and treasure) and give it back to Him? If there is work in the parish to be done, will I offer my time and talent to help out? What of my treasures (financial resources)? Do I give copper coins or do I offer gold coins? Do I give from what is left over or do I commit the first and the best that I have?

I close today my beloved brothers and sisters with this true story: A certain Christian said to a friend, “Our church costs too much. They are always asking for money.” The friend replied, “we had a little boy and he cost me a lot of money from the very beginning. He had a big appetite, he needed cloths, medicine, diapers, wipes, toys and a puppy. Then he went to school and that cost more. Later he went to college and began dating and that cost me a small fortune! But in his senior year of college he died, and since the funeral he hasn’t cost me a penny. Now which situation do you think I would rather have?” After a long pause she continued, “As long as this church lives, it will cost. When it dies for lack of support, it won’t cost anything. A living church has the most vital message for the entire world today and I give because I need to give. I give because I need to express to God my gratitude for His countless blessings. I give because I need to show that my time, talent and possessions belong to God and are to be used for His glory and to the betterment and assistance of my neighbor!”

Fr. John: Being The Kind Of Church People Need

By Fr. Robert Stephanopoulos
Cathedral Dean Emeritus

Bible Study at the Cathedral goes back many decades. Early in 1983, we began an evening Bible Study which met regularly during the school year (September to June). As the participation grew, our Bible Study developed into a year round weekly event. Participation was - and continues to be - open to all adults, including non-Orthodox individuals. The weekly sessions are an hour and a half in length and participation is encouraged by all.

The general purposes of the Bible Study is to read and study the meaning of the Holy Scriptures as the authoritative expression of God’s saving revelation for all people. The Church has passed this on to all generations through holy Tradition so that each one of us, through faith, grace, and understanding, may become better Christians and ultimately partakers of the divine nature.

Discussion is free, wide ranging and personal, yet always regulated and measured by the standards of the Church tradition and current scholarly endeavors. We meet every Thursday evening at 6:30pm and provide light refreshments. For more information, please contact the Cathedral office. All are welcome!
Annual Assembly Progresses with Constructive Dialogue

By Chrysanthe Loizos
Communications Officer
Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America

Dallas, TX – More than 35 members of the Assembly of Canonical Orthodox Bishops of the United States of America joined in celebrating the Divine Liturgy Tuesday morning, September 16, at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Dallas, Texas. At the conclusion of the Liturgy, the bishops offered a memorial service for the repose of the soul of Metropolitan Philip of the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese. The bishops are gathered in Dallas for the fifth annual meeting of the Assembly of Bishops.

In opening remarks following the Divine Liturgy, Archbishop Demetrios, Chairman of the Assembly, said that the Assembly’s convening would “certainly send a clear message to the world that we, the members of the Canonical Orthodox Bishops are all one in Christ through His life, death and resurrection. We have begun our work with the celebration of the Divine Liturgy, and the partaking of His One Body and Blood, thus constituting His One Holy, Undivided and Sacred Body."

His Eminence called on the Assembly to intensify its work in preparation for the Holy and Great Synod of the Orthodox Church, which is scheduled to be held in the Spring of 2016 in Constantinople.

The Assembly remains “prayerfully and painfully aware of developments” in the US and abroad, said His Eminence, including the persecution of our brothers and sisters in the Middle East, the violence in Ukraine that has caused suffering for our Orthodox brethren, and attacks, both direct and indirect, on our Faith in various forms of atheism, agnosticism and perverse religiosity, including a constant attempt by society to redefine what is moral.

In the afternoon session, the Assembly’s committees provided reports on their activities. Church and Society, Ecumenical Relations, Legal, Military Chaplaincy, Monastic Communities, Pastoral Practice, Theological Education, Youth and the newly-formed Committee for Agencies and Endorsed Organizations reported on their progress since Assembly IV and their plans for the coming year.

The Canonical Affairs committee made a presentation on the creation of a clergy database which, once completed, will be accessible to the faithful on the Assembly’s website. A second presentation highlighted the benefits of Bulletin Builder, a program that revolutionizes the creation of parish bulletins and significantly enhances communication within and between parishes. The program was created by the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese’s Department of Internet Ministries and is now offered free of charge to all parishes in the Assembly.

An Awesome Start to the School Year!

By Theodore P. Kusulas
Head of School
The Cathedral School

“Do the difficult things while they are easy and do the great things while they are small. A journey of a thousand miles must begin with a single step.” - Lao Tzu

The Cathedral School had an “awesome” beginning of the school year. You could feel the synergy and excitement among students, parents and teachers on our first day together, September 4th. Many other special occasions allowed us to define our vision of providing “A Classic Education for the 21st Century Learner.” Back-to-School/Meet the Teacher/Curriculum Night was amazing, bustling and collaborative. The efforts of the faculty were well received and they clearly “made the parents’ day.” The Welcome Back PA Breakfast set a positive tone of collaboration and support, allowing us to move forward as a cohesive learning community.

A personal highlight for me was celebrating & blessing the beginning of our journey together, with Father John, during an Artoclasia & Agiasmos service. When we walked into the Nursery, Father was carrying a Cross and basilico (basil). Holding up the Cross, he asked the youngsters if they knew what it was. A little boy enthusiastically replied, “It’s a trophy…like my daddy got for golf.” “Yes, it is a trophy,” responded Father. This brief interaction taught these young children a valuable lesson, that the Cross was a concrete expression of all that we believe in as Orthodox Christians and symbolizes God’s victory for all that is good and true. A complex concept taught in simple terms, for all to understand and appreciate.

Home, school, and community working together as a TEAM can make a difference and make this school year a very successful one for all of us. “The end depends on the beginning. Finis origine pendent.”
Spotlight on Family Saints: St. Eustathios and His Family

Feast Day: September 20th

The holy Martyr Eustathios before his baptism was an illustrious Roman general named Placidus in the days of the Emperor Trajan. While hunting in the country one day, he was converted to the Faith of Christ through the apparition of an uncommonly majestic stag, between whose antlers he saw the Cross of Christ, and through which the Lord spoke to him with a human voice. Upon returning home, he learned that his wife Tatiana had also had a vision in which she was instructed to become a Christian. They sought out the Bishop of the Christians and were baptized, Placidus receiving the name Eustathios, and Tatiana the name Theopiste; their two sons were baptized Agapios and Theopistos. The family was then subjected to such trials as Job endured. Their servants died, all their goods were stolen, and on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem they were scattered abroad, each not even knowing if the others were still alive. By the providence of God, they were united again after many years, and returned to Rome in glory. Nevertheless, when they refused to sacrifice to the idols—a public sacrifice from which no Roman general could be absent—the Emperor Hadrian, who had succeeded Trajan, had them put into a large bronze device in the shape of a bull, which was heated with fire until they died. When their holy bodies were removed, they were found to be without harm. They suffered martyrdom about the year 126.

Words of Wisdom

Love, harmony, and understanding between parents are what are required for the children. This provides a great sense of security and certainty. - St. Porphyrios

A Prayer for Couples

O Lord our God, who in Your saving dispensation declared marriage honorable by Your presence in Cana of Galilee, keep in peace and concord us, your servants, whom you have joined together as one. Make our marriage honorable. Preserve our union undefiled; grant that we may live together blamelessly; and make us worthy to attain to a ripe old age, fulfilling Your commandments with a pure heart.
The first Cathedral Philoptochos Board of Directors meeting took place after the summer break. Already we are busy planning many exciting events for this coming year.

The 2014 National Philoptochos Biennial Convention held in Philadelphia in July, was attended by two Board Members. We are excited to report that we received two first place Awards of Excellence: In Recognition of Chapter Membership Growth & Participation 200 or More Members and In Recognition of Most Innovative Chapter Website Communiqué. We also received the Award of Excellence In Recognition of National Ministry Commitments 100% Participation in 2012 & 2013.

We are current in fulfilling our National obligations:
- Hellenic College Holy Cross Scholarship Fund
- Retired Clergy and Widowed Presvyteres Benevolent Fund
- National Philoptochos Emergency Fund

On Sunday September 28, 2014 for National Philoptochos Fellowship Sunday, our Philoptochos passed a special tray for the Aid to Greece and Cyprus Campaign to assist those in need.

Every Tuesday we continue to work with Jan Hus Church to provide a meal for approximately 100 homeless people. We also continue to assist individuals and families experiencing health and financial difficulties.

The Archdiocesan Cathedral Philoptochos proudly sponsors the coffee hour every Sunday.

The first main event is our General meeting to be held on Thursday, October 23, 2014. We will begin with a tea followed by the movie “Little England” at the Ziegfeld Theater from the Eighth Annual New York City Greek Film Festival. The movie follows a Greek shipping family through the 1930s and 1940s on the island of Andros. Details will follow.

The Direct Archdiocesan District Philoptochos will hold the Agape Luncheon at the Long Island Marriott in Uniondale, New York on Saturday, November 22, 2014. Proceeds from this event will benefit the expansion fund of St. Michael’s Home.

Cathedral Youth Groups Underway

By Diakonissa Georgia Papadopoulos
Head of JOY Ministry

With great excitement we have had our first JOY meeting of the new ecclesiastical year on Friday, September 13th. JOY, which stands for Junior Orthodox Youth, is a ministry of the Orthodox Church. It is very important to that we help our children grow in their love for Christ in their hearts. For this reason, JOY strives to teach children about the traditions and teachings of our Orthodox faith through fellowship, teaching, and age appropriate service projects.

At our first meeting, Fr. John did an icebreaker to get to know the children. He also spoke to them about the importance of attending the Divine Liturgy and more importantly receiving Holy Communion, which is the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. He gave them examples of having a sacrificial love for others, just like Christ sacrificed out of His love for every single one of us.

The next two JOY meetings will be held on October 3rd and October 17th from 6:00 - 7:30 pm in the Cathedral School undercroft. We look forward to having more of our children attend these meetings. We thank all the volunteers that provided food and their time to make this ministry of our church such a success.

Cathedral GOYA Holds First Meeting

By Athanasios Minetos
Pastoral Assistant

GOYA, which stands for Greek Orthodox Youth of America, had its kickoff meeting on Friday, September 19th. High School aged Orthodox Christians from the Cathedral Community came to get to know each other and to plan activities and outreach events that will take place over the course of the year.

The evening started off with food and a ‘get-to-know-you’ game, followed by a very engaging discussion with Fr. John Vlahos. The discussion was kicked off by a video of a man born with no arms or legs, who, through his perseverance and faith, has become a renowned inspirational speaker. Seeing his example, the GOYAns were able to reflect upon how fortunate they are, as well as how even without limbs, this man continues to have a positive demeanor and outlook on life. In addition, Fr. John brought up that life is always worth living, even though there are hardships and difficulties that every human being encounters.

Following the discussion, the group closed off by planning future meetings and events. GOYA’s next event will be apple picking on Saturday, October 5th, followed by another meeting later in the month. In addition, the GOYA is looking forward to outreach events later in the year with ‘Midnight Run’ and ‘Ronald McDonald House.’ More information on the time and dates for these events will be forthcoming, so please stay tuned!
Sunday School Announces
New Curriculum

By Effie Doscas-Butler
Sunday School Director

Our first few weeks of Sunday School have been very successful, and we have had a fun start to the year. We began registration on September 7th, and began classes on September 14th. If you have not registered yet, it is not too late; we are accepting registrations throughout the year. The Cathedral Sunday School is available for all children, with a starting age of 40 days old. We have been diligently working on a new curriculum, allowing for a more complete learning experience for all children from infants through teenagers.

Children from 40 days to 3 years old have a “mommy and me” style circle time. The children learn through simple songs and by hearing the most elementary Bible Stories. One parent stays with the child while our wonderful nursery school teacher instructs the class. The 4 to 6 year olds are learning about the basic symbols and values of the Church. Most classes include a craft. Children ages 7 to 9 years old begin their focus on learning how to read the Bible and studying the Lord’s Prayer. Our 10 to 12 year olds are focusing on the Sacraments and understanding the Divine Liturgy.

In addition, this year we will continue the long standing tradition of a monthly “Communion Breakfast.” Following Holy Communion, the children will have breakfast in the undercroft of the church, were we will review the monthly schedule and have a lesson together.

Finally, I would like to sincerely thank all of our volunteers and helpers who tirelessly work to make our Sunday School such a success. The work of volunteers and helpers are crucial to the success of every ministry of our parish. However, the more our Sunday School grows and flourishes, the more help we will need. Please consider volunteering in any way that you can. All materials and lesson plans will be provided. If you have any questions, or you would like to help us in our mission to bring Christ into the lives of our young members of the Cathedral, please feel free to contact me at (917) 863-0149, or email me at edoscas@zbi.com. May God continue to bless all of us and guide us through this Sunday School year.
